

Rome's Media Art Festival 2018

17-19 May. The 2018 Media Art Festival explores new frontiers in art and technology through lectures, conferences, master classes and workshops, with the aim of bringing art closer to a younger generation while outlining creative ways to harness modern technology. For details of the three-day festival, which takes place at MAXXI, see website.