

Knowledge Volunteers Project

Members & partners news - May 22, 2013

The Knowledge Volunteers Project involves older and young people in an educational and training plan based on voluntary activities and an inter-generational, peer-to-peer learning model. It aims to promote the acquisition of digital competences among elders at risk of exclusion and intergenerational relations that also benefit the education of young people. Discover also TKV's evaluation report of the intergenerational training courses part of the TKV project.

A didactic kit including guidelines and handbooks for 4 level of digital literacy competences has been developed in English, Italian, Czech, Greek and Spanish and is available to download free of charge on the project website. It is a useful tool for organisation or individuals who wish to replicate the experience in similar or different contexts.

The project is is funded by the European Commission LLP Grundtvig Programme.