

27th
September 2019

Rome, via del Quadraro 102

9am–5pm

International Conference

An opportunity to present the DisAbuse outcomes and open the dialogue on the state of the art in relation to bullying and special needs with representatives of European Research Centers, public authorities, NGOs, and educational institutions

Workshops

Held by Fondazione Mondo Digitale and Anti-Bullying Centre of Dublin City University using Lego® Serious Play® methodology successfully piloted during the project training

Click here to register

Further information

www.disabuse.eu

e.amorelli@mondodigitale.org

a.mazzucato@mondodigitale.org

DisAbuse "Disablist Bullying - Experience into Change" is a 2 year Erasmus+ project countering disablist bullying by learning from the experiences of both young people and adults with Special Educational Needs with Disabilities (SEN/D). The project supports and educates teachers, trainers and students in promoting equality, diversity, and inclusion, delivering training with supportive online interactive educational materials.